Minister of Culture of the Russian Federation

Dear friends!

On behalf of the Ministry of Culture of the Russian Federation, I would like to congratulate you with the opening of the All-National Festival "The Circus Princess".

Over the years of its existence, the project has become a significant event on the festival map of our country. This is a unique opportunity to show your skill and artistry. Colorful original performances, prepared by talented circus artists, reflect the high level of training of the participants and open up further prospects in the development of their professional careers.

The festival invariably attracts the attention of true connoisseurs of circus circle art, helps viewers from different generations come closer to understanding of the circus art beauty.

I wish all the participants fruitful communication with interesting and talented people, and for the guests - bright impressions and good mood!
